GIVECAMPUS

Crowdfunding with GiveCampus

Effortlessly ignite the entrepreneurial spirit within your community

Your community is a wellspring of fundraising ideas, but effectively tapping that resource can be a challenge. Coordinating and organizing grassroots initiatives takes time, talent, and the right technology.

Now there's an easier way to source, review, and publish ideas from your community right from within GC Social Fundraising. Our built-in crowdfunding solution not only streamlines the submission process, but it provides a more configurable digital space to showcase all of those great ideas.
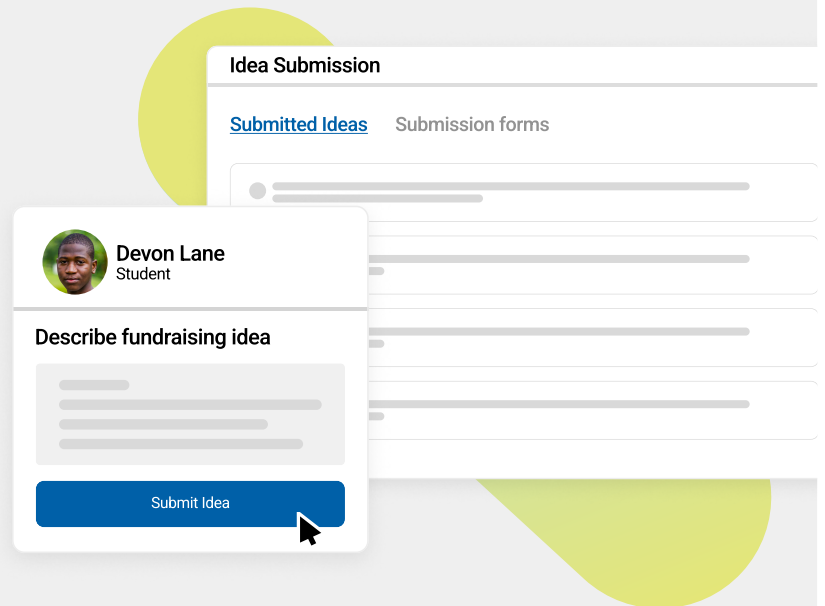

The crowdfunding process inside GiveCampus

1. GC Admin creates idea submission form

2. Community member submits idea

3. GC Admin approve, reject, and offer feedback

6. GC Admin ultimately decides if the campaign is published

5. Student is invited to GC under restricted permissions to add content to the campaign

4. GC Admin creates campaign and can invite the community member to build the campaign's content

How does it work?

Invite your community to submit their ideas

Customizable forms make it easy to gather all the essential information you need to create vibrant new campaigns. Every idea submitted gets neatly stored in your "Ideas Submitted" view for effortless tracking and follow-up. Let the creativity flow and watch your community's ideas spring to life!

Empower your community while lightening your load

Invite members of your community to develop their own campaign content. By granting restricted permissions, you can empower constituents to take an active role in bringing their ideas to life, while still retaining full control over the final publishing process. It's a collaborative approach that lightens your workload without compromising quality.
